9. GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

9.1. Period of the Agreement

9.1.1. The Agreement starts when we have accepted your Application and ends when the Service is cancelled, by us or you.

9.2. Minimum Contract Period

9.2.1. A Minimum Contract Period applies to some Plans. It is the minimum period during which you must acquire a Service. The Minimum Contract Period is set out in the Plan Description. The Minimum Contract Period commences from the date we activate the Service.

9.3. Cancellation

9.3.1. If, from the date you sign the Application Form to the expiry of the Minimum Contract Period, you cancel the Service or we cancel the Service because of your default, you are liable to pay a cancellation fee. The cancellation fee is equal to the total monthly recurring charges for the Service for the remaining term of the Minimum Contract Period.

9.3.2. If there is no Minimum Contract Period, or if the Minimum Contract Period has expired, we will continue to supply the Services on a month-to-month basis until you cancel them or we cancel them.

9.3.3. Despite this, if you are cancelling because you are leaving your village, no cancellation fee applies. If your estate cancels the service, no cancellation fees apply.

9.3.4. Cancellation requests must be submitted in writing by emailing cancellations@rasimple.com.au. We will only accept requests submitted by the account holder or (in the event you have vacated) your Village Manager.

9.3.5. If you would like to move your phone number to another provider please make this clear in your cancellation request as it cannot be moved once your service has been cancelled. A port out fee may apply for us to coordinate this with your new provider.

9.3.6. All services (excluding FOXTEL) are terminated effective the last day of the current billing period when your request is processed. Please allow up to 7 business days for cancellation requests to be processed.

9.3.7. FOXTEL services are terminated effective the last day of the month. At least 40 days notice is required to process FOXTEL service cancellations. For example, a cancellation request received on 7th March will be completed (service terminated) on 30th April.

9.4. Applications

9.4.1. You promise that information provided to us in the Application is true and correct. We may charge you a resubmission fee if it is not.

9.4.2. By applying for a service, you authorise us to communicate with credit referencing bodies/associations about your credit history and in so doing to provide them with the details that you have provided to us. We may do this from time to time during the term of the Agreement.

9.4.3. We may apply restrictions to a service where you have not met our credit assessment criteria. We will advise you of the general nature of the reasons for these restrictions and, if applicable, how you may access services which have been restricted.

9.5. Installation

9.5.1. We will endeavour to schedule an installation time that suits you. If we schedule an installation time, and you are not available when we arrive, we will re-schedule at no charge. If you are not available when we arrive the second time, we reserve the right to charge you for a re-scheduled installation at our normal charge out rates.

9.5.2. Installation charges, set up fees and equipment fees are billed in the first bill we send you after installation.

9.6. Your Private Information

9.6.1. We are required by law to collect certain personal information about you, including your name, address and telephone service number in order to provide it to the operator of the Independent Public Numbering Database (IPND). Information in the IPND is used to develop directories and to assist emergency service organisations.

9.6.2. We use our best endeavours to comply with a privacy policy which is available on our website or by contacting us. This policy governs the information we collect on you, how we use it and your rights to access it. You consent to us collecting and disclosing your personal information including any unlisted telephone number and address from or to:

- a) any credit providers or credit reporting agencies;
- b) any law enforcement agencies;
- c) to conduct ongoing credit management of your account;
- d) any upstream supplier for purposes connected with the service; and
- e) any person who provides us with your username(s) or password(s).

9.6.3. From time to time we will update you on our services, news, promotions and offers including those from related or affiliated organisations. You consent to us contacting you at any time (including after you have terminated the agreement), for this purpose through any available contact methods. You can withdraw your consent at any time by contacting us.

9.7. Billing and Payment

9.7.1. We will send you a bill by email at the end of each billing period.

9.7.2. If you request us to post a printed bill to you, we reserve the right to charge you for that service.

9.7.3. You must pay all outstanding amounts by the due date as shown on your bill. A late payment will incur a $16.50 inc GST late payment fee.

9.7.4. Usage records and download times can vary from time to time. Whilst we aim to do so, we are unable to guarantee that all usage records during a billing period will appear on the corresponding bill.

9.7.5. Payments may be made to us through our available payment methods. Service fees and charges may apply for some available payment methods.

9.7.6. We will apply payments made by you against outstanding bills at our discretion.

9.7.7. If you have chosen to use our direct debit facilities, and we have not received your payment by the due date, unless we agree with you otherwise, we will debit your nominated account on or after the due date. We may continue to do so at any time until all amounts due are paid.

9.7.8. Where in our opinion you have a reasonable claim or dispute with an invoice or a debit, we will suspend our collection or recovery processes until a determination on your claim or dispute has been made. We will reimburse any incorrectly debited amount as soon as reasonably practicable.

9.7.9. Accounts paid with a Visa or Mastercard credit card will incur a surcharge of 2.0% (incl. GST) of the debited amount when we debit the card. Accounts paid with a Diners Card or American Express credit card will incur a surcharge of 4.0% (inc GST) of the debited amount when we debit the card.

9.7.10. You are responsible for ensuring there is sufficient funds/credit available in your nominated credit card or direct debit account at any time we debit the account. You must pay dishonour fees and any other charges, expenses or losses resulting from our attempting unsuccessfully to debit the credit card or direct debit account unless the failure was due to a clear error on our part. Dishonoured payments incur a $50.00 inc GST. Direct Debit rejections incur a $50.00 inc GST.

9.7.11. We will not accept Prepaid Visa/Master credit cards or gift cards.

9.7.12. You must pay all costs, charges and expenses that we may incur in relation to our attempts to recover all debts due by you to us, including accounting, mercantile agents costs, debt collection agency costs and interest.

9.8. Changes to the Agreement

9.8.1. We may change the agreement in the following circumstances:

- a) Where you agree to the change;
- b) Where the change will not adversely affect you and, before the changes take effect, we have given you notice of the change;
- c) Where the change is in relation to charges for making international telephone calls or roaming and, before the changes take effect, we have given you notice of the change;
- d) Where the change is to introduce or vary a fee or charge to pass on a tax or levy imposed by law and, before the changes take effect, we have given you notice of the change;
- e) Where the change is to introduce or to vary a charge associated with a content or premium service where we rely on a third party for the service and the third party increases its price to us and, before the changes take effect, we have given you reasonable notice of the change;
- f) If the agreement is a fixed period contract and the change is adverse to you, and we provide to you not less than 21 days notice of the change.

9.8.2. We may withdraw any plans or packages at any time by giving you notice but such withdrawals will only take effect from the end of your then current fixed period contract.

9.8.3. Notice of a change to the agreement may be given by us by email to your nominated account email address, with or as part of a bill, or otherwise in writing, including by fax or mail.

9.8.4. If we change the agreement under clause 2.1(f), you may cancel the agreement within 42 days of the date of the notice without incurring charges, other than usage or network access charges to the date the agreement ends and outstanding amounts for installation or for equipment with other suppliers' services.

9.8.5. Your ongoing use of the service after the date of a variation, alteration, replacement or revocation or on the expiry of the 42 day period, is deemed acceptance of the variation, alteration, replacement or revocation.

9.9. Equipment

9.9.1. Equipment supplied to enable a Service is at our discretion, as we consider appropriate from time to time. We reserve the right to replace equipment with alternative equipment.

9.9.2. Equipment on our side of the service boundary remains our property at all times. The service boundary may differ from the network boundary, under relevant law.

9.9.3. You will follow our operating instructions for our Equipment and will not use our equipment except in accordance with them.

9.9.4. You will keep our equipment free from damage, defect, fault or other failure except resulting from fair wear and tear. This includes causes such as electrical surges, accidents, fire, theft and water damage.

9.9.5. You will not use our equipment in conjunction with additions, accessories or attachments other than those supplied by us for that purpose or approved by us for that purpose.

9.10. Usage

9.10.1. You acknowledge that charges will be incurred when the service is used. It is important that you take steps to ensure that such usage does not occur without your authorisation.

9.10.2. You must ensure third parties cannot access or use such equipment without your authority.

9.10.3. You must ensure that you have appropriate protection systems operating on your equipment to restrict or limit the possibility of unauthorised usage.

9.10.4. You are responsible for all usage charges in respect of the use of the service, whether or not such usage was authorised by you, unless the usage was caused by a manifest error by us.

9.10.5. You acknowledge that we cannot be held responsible for any loss incurred by you because of faults and/or failures within a third party carrier's network infrastructure.

9.10.6. While we will use our best endeavours in providing the service, you use it at your own risk. Even if you use equipment or permit another person to use your service, you are solely responsible for its use including:

- a) the calls made and messages sent;
- b) the sites and content accessed;
- c) the content or software downloaded and its effect on your equipment or service;
- d) the products and services purchased;
- e) the information provided to others;
- f) the installation or use of any equipment or software whether provided by us or not;
- g) the modification of any settings, data or equipment whether instructed by us or not;
- h) the personal supervision of any users under the age of 18 who use the service; and
- i) the lawfulness of your activities and accessing any sites and third party content.

9.11. Acceptable Use

9.11.1. The service is provided to you on the basis that it is used only for approved purposes. In particular you must:

- a) not use the service in any manner involving illegal, malicious, deceptive or misleading activity;
- b) not breach any standards, content requirements or codes set out by any relevant authority or industry body;
- c) not use the service in any way which interferes with the operations of the service network, anyone else's enjoyment of their service or which upsets or offends any person;
- d) not use the service for commercial purposes or in any way distribute or resell the service without our written permission;
- e) obey all laws, regulations, guidelines and our reasonable instructions concerning your use of the service;
- f) give us all information and cooperation that we may need in relation to the service; and

- g) advise us of changes in your personal information such as account details, debit or credit card details and expiry dates and billing and service addresses.
- 9.11.2. You must not use the service in a way which contravenes any fair use policy, acceptable use policy or fair go policy that applies to the service.
- 9.11.3. We may suspend or terminate, with or without notice, your service if, in our reasonable opinion, the service has been directly or indirectly involved in activities that are detrimental to our service or jeopardise the use of our service or its performance for other customers or how the wider community will perceive the service. Such activities include, but are not limited to:
 - a) 'Spamming' e-mail or forwarding spammed e-mail to other Internet user's e-mail addresses'
 - b) being listed or causing the listing of us or our other customers on any real-time blacklist;
- 9.11.4. e-mail bombing and the use of bulk e-mail programs to unsolicited recipients making commercial advertising, informational announcements, charity requests, petitions for signatures, chain letters and political or religious messages;
- 9.11.5. attempting to obtain unauthorised access to other Internet servers and systems; and
- 9.11.6. making misrepresentations or abusive or offensive behaviour in newsgroups and other online facilities.
- 9.11.7. You must not use the service in a way or post to or transmit to or via the service any material which interferes with other users or defames, harasses, threatens, menaces, offends or restricts any person or which inhibits any other customer from using or enjoying the service. You must not use the service to send unsolicited electronic mail messages to anyone. You must not attempt any of these acts or permit another person to do any of these acts.
- 9.11.8. We may suspend without notice your account if it has been used in offensive and/or illegal activities under State and/or Commonwealth laws. This includes the dissemination of banned pornographic material and other illegal content. In such cases, the relevant law enforcement agency(ies) will be notified, and offending material(s) may be passed on to them.
- 9.11.9. What constitutes inappropriate use will be determined by us, at our sole discretion provided that we act reasonably.
- 9.11.10. We may monitor the use of your service, however we do not promise to do so. If we identify excessive use or unusual activity we may temporarily restrict or suspend your service. If we do so we will endeavour to contact you via your nominated primary contact details. We may require an advance payment before your service is restored. You should not rely on us to contact you or to suspend your service in the event of excessive or unusual activity.
- 9.11.11. We may investigate any misuse of the service by you, in conjunction with relevant law enforcement agencies.
- 9.12. Suspension/Disconnection of the service
 - 9.12.1. We may disconnect the service and cancel the agreement at any time by giving 30 days notice.
 - 9.12.2. If you fail to comply with what we consider to be an important term or condition of this agreement or should you fail to comply with a number of less important terms and conditions then we can suspend or disconnect your service or reroute calls from your service. We will generally provide you with notice of your failure and allow you a reasonable time to remedy it. However we may suspend or disconnect your service without notice to you where:

- a) you exceed the amount of your usage limit or credit limit;
- b) there has been, in our opinion, unusual activity on your service;
- c) you have not paid charges when due;
- d) you do something which we believe may damage the service network;
- e) you are no longer approved by us under our policies to receive the service;
- f) an authority such as the ACMA or enforcement agency instructs us to do so;
- g) we believe you have used your service for unauthorised, criminal or unlawful activity;
- h) you vacate the premises in which you are provided the service without notifying us;
- i) the network or the service network requires repairs or maintenance;
- j) we believe it is necessary to comply with our legal obligations;
- k) we are entitled to do so under the plan or package;
- l) you verbally abuse, attempt, threaten or cause harm to any staff, equipment or network infrastructure of ours or any of the service networks.

9.12.3. In the following additional circumstances we may suspend or disconnect your service(s) or reroute calls from your service(s) but we will provide you with reasonable notice prior to doing so:

- a) you do anything which we believe may damage the service network;
- b) you have used the service other than in accordance with the agreement;
- c) you do not comply with the terms set out in a Plan Description or Service Description and Terms.

9.12.4. Where one or more services included in a bundled offer(s) are disconnected, entitlement to any discounts under such offers may be forfeited.

9.12.5. Where we are entitled to suspend or disconnect one or more services in a bundle, we may suspend and disconnect every service in that bundle.

9.12.6. While your service is suspended or disconnected we will continue to charge you any applicable fees and charges. We will only do so where the suspension or disconnection is due to your failure to comply with your obligations under this agreement, or is performed at your request.

9.12.7. We are not liable to you or any person(s) claiming through you for any loss or damage arising from suspension or disconnection of your service in accordance with this clause.

9.13. Force Majeure

9.13.1. We will not be liable for any delay in installing any service, any delay in correcting any fault in any service, any failure or incorrect operation of any service, or any other delay or default in performance under this Agreement if it is caused by any event or circumstance reasonably beyond our control, including but not limited to; war, accident, civil commotion, riot, military action, sabotage, act of terrorism, vandalism, embargo, judicial action, labour dispute, an act of a government or a government authority, acts of God, earthquake, fire, flood, plague or other natural calamity, computer viruses, hacker attacks or failure of the internet or delay, or failure or default by any other supplier.

9.14. Liability

9.14.1. You may have rights and remedies under the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) and other laws, which may imply certain conditions and warranties into this agreement, and under the Customer Service Guarantee issued by the ACMA, which established minimum connection and fault repair times. We do not exclude or restrict or modify those rights, remedies or implied conditions and warranties.

9.14.2. Where we are liable for any loss or damage in connection with or arising from the breach of any term, condition, warranty or remedy implied by the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) our liability is limited to resupplying, repairing or replacing the relevant service or equipment where the service or equipment is not of a kind ordinarily required for personal, domestic or household use or consumption and where it is fair and reasonable to do so.

9.14.3. We are not liable for any defamatory, offensive or illegal conduct or material found in connection with our services, including such conduct or material transmitted by any means by any other person

9.14.4. You indemnify us from and against all actions, claims, suits, demands, liabilities, losses, costs and expenses arising out of or in any way connected with your use of the service or the equipment in a manner contrary to the terms of this agreement.

9.14.5. Where you are two or more persons your liability will be joint and several.

9.15. Assignment

9.15.1. You may transfer your rights and obligations under this agreement to other person(s) approved by us under our assessment policies.

9.15.2. We may transfer our rights and obligations under this Agreement if we reasonable consider there will be no detriment to you.

9.16. Governing law

9.16.1. This agreement is governed by the laws of the state or territory of Australia in which you are normally resident. You and we agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the courts of such state or territory.

9.17. Charge-Out Rates

You are also responsible for cabling on your side of the network boundary, as defined by relevant laws, which may differ from the service boundary.

12.3.4. If we conduct a site visit to your premises, and find that the fault lies with your cable or equipment and not within our network, we reserve the right to charge you for the call out at our normal charge-out rates.

12.4. Equipment

12.4.1. We will supply you with a modem to connect to Standard Plus Broadband. We own the modem.

12.4.2. You may only use equipment we supply to connect to Standard Plus Broadband.

12.5. Charges and Fees

12.5.1. Set up, installation and other once off charges are billed in the month in which the Service is established or otherwise the month in which the charges is incurred.

12.5.2. The Monthly Recurring Charges for the service are billed monthly in advance, unless we state otherwise in the Plan.

12.5.3. You will be billed within 14 days of the end of the prior month for the following period's subscription fee and you agree to acquire the service for that period.

12.6. Data Allowances

12.6.1. If a Plan specifies a data allowance with excess usage charges, you will be billed for all usage in excess of the specified allowance at the rate specified, and if no rate is specified, at the rate of 9 cents per Megabyte.

12.6.2. To calculate you usage:

- a) we use the greater of either your aggregate download use or aggregate upload use;
- b) 1GB (Gigabyte) = 1000 MB (Megabytes); and
- c) 1MB = 1000 KB (Kilobytes) .

12.6.3. Excess usage charges are billed monthly in arrears, unless stated otherwise in a Plan.

12.6.4. If a Plan specifies a data allowance with throttling, your connection speed will be slowed to as low as 64kbps when you exceed the data allowance.

12.6.5. You can monitor your history and data usage by logging into your account at www.rasimple.com.au.

12.6.6. We may elect not to provide a usage meter on plans with unlimited usage.

12.7. Service Changes

12.7.1. You are free to migrate your Service to a Plan of higher value without charge.

12.7.2. Otherwise, all changes to your Service will incur a fee as follows:

- a) Change of Plan $50.00 administration fee
- b) Relocation Re-installation or setup fees available on request
- c) Termination See General Terms and Conditions

12.7.3. Any change to a Service (including a change of Plan) will cause the application Minimum Contract Period to re-commence.

12.8. IP addresses

12.8.1. We may provide you with dynamic or static IP addresses as described in the Plan, and if not specified then we will provide dynamic IP addresses.

12.8.2. You agree that the IP Address(es) issued to you for use in connection with a service are only issued to you for use during the term of your acquisition of the service. On termination of the service, your right to use the IP Address(es) ceases.

12.8.3. We are responsible for all DNS delegation and routing in connection with the service.

12.9. Email

12.9.1. We do not supply an email account or address with this service.

12.9.2. If you ask us to assist with changing your email address, we reserve the right to charge for the work at our usual charge our rates.

12.10. Filtering

12.10.1. We reserve the right to inspect and filter content, including for the purpose of:

- a) Adding or deleting websites from our filter list without prior notice to you;
- b) Prioritise and de-prioritise traffic on our network; and
- c) Limit access to certain content and categories of traffic during periods of high network traffic.

13. PREMIUM BROADBAND SERVICE DESCRIPTION

13.1. Description

13.1.1. Premium Broadband is a high-speed broadband internet connection which operates over one of several technologies. The choice of technology is at our discretion.

13.1.2. Premium Broadband is designed to deliver up to 100Mbps download and up to 40Mbps upload speeds, however actual speeds vary.

13.1.3. We will accept a Premium Broadband Service is faulty if the speeds obtained by our technicians conducting line testing over the local access circuit are below 15Mbps (Megabits per second) download and 5 Mbps upload. The local access circuit is the circuit between your residence and our core network switch.

13.1.4. Actual internet access speeds can vary substantially for many reasons. Whilst we accept responsibility for speeds over the local access circuit, we do not guarantee internet access speeds.

13.1.5. To acquire Premium Broadband, you must be in an area covered by our network, which we will publish on our website at www.rasimple.com.au.

13.1.6. You may use Premium Broadband for personal, domestic or household use. You may not resell the service nor allow it to be used for commercial purposes.

13.1.7. To install Premium Broadband, we disconnect your line from the old copper telephone network (so called Public Switched Telephone Network or "PSTN"). Services you have which rely on a connection to the PSTN may be affected. This includes telephone services with other providers and back to base alarm systems with other providers. Contact us and we can help replace these services.

13.2. Support

13.2.1. We provide support for setting up your account, installing the service, our own equipment, changes to your account and service, and ongoing availability of the connection to the internet. This support is included in your monthly subscription fees.

13.2.2. We can provide support for email accounts, for uploading and downloading from websites or for your computers, laptops or smartphones. This support is not included in your monthly subscription fees. We will charge these services to you at our normal charge-out rates for technical support.

13.3. Faults

- 13.3.1. We will do our best to deliver you a reliable internet service, however we cannot guarantee a fault free uninterrupted service, or guarantee the speed, performance or quality of the service.
- 13.3.2. You must direct all queries regarding faults, outages and service issues to either the email address, online chat address or the phone number we provide for that purpose from time to time.
- 13.3.3. We are responsible for the service to the service boundary. For the Premium Broadband Service, the service boundary is the customer side of the modem we install. You are responsible for cabling and equipment on your side of the service boundary. You are also responsible for cabling on your side of the network boundary, as defined by relevant laws, which may differ from the service boundary.
- 13.3.4. If we conduct a site visit to your premises, and find that the fault lies with your cable or equipment and not within our network, we reserve the right to charge you for the call out at our normal charge-out rates.

13.4. Equipment

- 13.4.1. We will supply you with a modem to connect to Premium Broadband. We own the modem.
- 13.4.2. You may only use equipment we supply to connect to Premium Broadband.

13.5. Charges and Fees

- 13.5.1. Set up, installation and other once off charges are billed in the month in which the Service is established or otherwise the month in which the charges is incurred.
- 13.5.2. The Monthly Recurring Charges for the service are billed monthly in advance, unless we state otherwise in the Plan.
- 13.5.3. You will be billed within 14 days of the end of the prior month for the following period's subscription fee and you agree to acquire the service for that period.

13.6. Data Allowances

- 13.6.1. If a Plan specifies a data allowance with excess usage charges, you will be billed for all usage in excess of the specified allowance at the rate specified, and if no rate is specified, at the rate of 9 cents per Megabyte.
- 13.6.2. To calculate you usage:
 - a) we use the greater of either your aggregate download use or aggregate upload use;
 - b) 1GB (Gigabyte) = 1000 MB (Megabytes); and
 - c) 1MB = 1000 KB (Kilobytes) .
- 13.6.3. Excess usage charges are billed monthly in arrears, unless stated otherwise in a Plan.
- 13.6.4. If a Plan specifies a data allowance with throttling, your connection speed will be slowed to as low as 64kbps when you exceed the data allowance.
- 13.6.5. You can monitor your history and data usage by logging into your account at www.rasimple.com.au.
- 13.6.6. We may elect not to provide a usage meter on plans with unlimited usage.

13.7. Service Changes

- 13.7.1. You are free to migrate your Service to a Plan of higher value without charge.
- 13.7.2. Otherwise, all changes to your Service will incur a fee as follows:
 - a) Change of Plan $50.00 administration fee
 - b) Relocation Re-installation or setup fees available on request
 - c) Termination See General Terms and Conditions
- 13.7.3. Any change to a Service (including a change of Plan) will cause the application Minimum Contract Period to re-commence.

13.8. IP addresses

13.8.1. We may provide you with dynamic or static IP addresses as described in the Plan, and if not specified then we will provide dynamic IP addresses.

13.8.2. You agree that the IP Address(es) issued to you for use in connection with a service are only issued to you for use during the term of your acquisition of the service. On termination of the service, your right to use the IP Address(es) ceases.

13.8.3. We are responsible for all DNS delegation and routing in connection with the service.

13.9. Email

13.9.1. We do not supply an email account or address with this service.

13.9.2. If you ask us to assist with changing your email address, we reserve the right to charge for the work at our usual charge our rates.

13.10. Filtering

13.10.1. We reserve the right to inspect and filter content, including for the purpose of:

- a) Adding or deleting websites from our filter list without prior notice to you;
- b) Prioritise and de-prioritise traffic on our network; and
- c) Limit access to certain content and categories of traffic during periods of high network traffic.

14.HOME PHONE SERVICE DESCRIPTION

14.1. Service Description

14.1.1. The Home Phone Service is a voice calling service comprising:

- a) a connection to our IP Voice platform;
- b) the ability to make and receive calls;
- c) a telephone number; and
- d) a listing of the telephone number in a telephone directory.

14.1.2. Our IP Voice platform is a carrier grade voice solution delivered over our private “IP” data network. It is like a traditional telephone service, except it uses modern technology.

14.1.3. You acknowledge that our Home Phone Service will not work if there is a power failure or if there is a network failure. Any Eevi Monitoring services will continue to operate for 36 hours in the event of a power failure at your residence.

14.1.4. Our IP Voice platform supports:

- a) local number portability;
- b) number allocations based on geography;
- c) updates to the IPND (“Integrated Public Number Database”); and
- d) emergency calls to “000”.

14.1.5. The Service does not support calls to;

- a) Operator assisted services including 1234, 12456 and 1225;
- b) All 19/1900 information services;
- c) Numbers using pre-selection or override codes; and
- d) Destinations where our IP Voice platform cannot ascertain the telephone number of the call (for example where operator assisted calls connect calls to a termination number on behalf of a caller).

14.1.6. Unlike most Voice over IP (or “VoIP”) services, our connection is not carried over the internet. This means we can measure, monitor and manage the voice quality and the security.

14.2. Charges and Fees

- 14.2.1. Set up, installation and other once off charges are billed in the month in which the Service is established or otherwise the month in which the charge is incurred.
- 14.2.2. The Monthly Recurring Charges for the service are billed monthly in advance, unless we state otherwise in the Plan.
- 14.2.3. You will be billed within 14 days of the end of the prior month for the following period's Monthly Recurring Charge and you agree to acquire the service for that period.
- 14.2.4. Call Usage Charges and other charges under your Plan are set out on our website from time to time at www.rasimple.com.au. You acknowledge having read these details and agree to them.
- 14.2.5. Call Usage Charges and other charges are billed monthly in arrears.
- 14.2.6. In our bill, we will provide details of call data records to enable you to check your call usage.

14.3. Equipment

- 14.3.1. We will provide you with equipment which will enable you to connect a standard telephone to our Home Phone Service. We do not guarantee interoperability with all telephones, nor do we guarantee that the features and functions of your telephone will be supported by our Service.

14.4. Service Packs

- 14.4.1. Service Packs are bundles of functions and features that enable you to build a home phone service to meet your specific needs.
- 14.4.2. We may add and remove Service Packs from time to time by notice in writing to you. For a list of currently available Service Packs, please go to our website at www.rasimple.com.au.
- 14.4.3. If we upgrade a Service Pack to include new features or functionality, you must purchase the upgraded Service Pack to access these new features and functionality.
- 14.4.4. If you wish to cancel a Service Pack, you are free to do so by email in writing to us at cancellations@rasimple.com.au, subject to any conditions in your Plan. We will process your cancellation within 14 days.

14.5. Phone Numbers

- 14.5.1. If you do not already have a phone number for your phone for use with the service, we will issue you a phone number.
- 14.5.2. All phone numbers are selected, issued and used by us in accordance with ACMA's Numbering Plan and Telecommunications Numbering Plan Number Declarations (numbering regulations).
- 14.5.3. We may be required to recover or recover and replace a phone number we have issued to you in order for us to comply with the numbering regulations. We will give you as much notice as is reasonably practicable if we have to do this.
- 14.5.4. You may request a new phone number. If we agree to issue you a new phone number, you may have to pay a charge. If you need a new phone number because you have received calls of a harassing nature and you reported the matter to the relevant law enforcement agency, we will supply you with a new phone number free of charge on the first two occasions. You will have to pay a charge for any further phone number changes.
- 14.5.5. You do not own the phone number but your right to use the phone number starts when we issue the phone number to you.

14.5.6. Your right to use the phone number ends if you no longer obtain the service unless you port the phone number.

14.6. Local Number Portability

- 14.6.1. We support transferring phone numbers (“Local Number Portability” or “LNP”) with the following carriers: Simple, Optus, Primus, Verizon, Soul, TPG, Gotalk, iiNet, Symbio Networks and AAPT.
- 14.6.2. We may at our discretion add or remove carriers from the list of carriers to and from whom we support LNP. You will not request ports from carrier other than those listed.
- 14.6.3. If you wish to transfer a phone number, you will sign a Port Authority Form in the form we supply.
- 14.6.4. You will pay the charges associated with LNP as set out in your Plan and otherwise specified in our Home Services Charges document at our website at www.rasimple.com.au.
- 14.6.5. We will use best endeavours to process your request in a timely manner and in compliance with relevant codes however we do not guarantee the feasibility or success of a port request nor that you will receive continuity of service during a port.
- 14.6.6. You authorise us to sign on your behalf and in your name forms of authority to your current supplier to transfer your service number(s) to us and you authorise your current supplier to transfer to us all services relating to the service numbers transferred to us.
- 14.6.7. If your current supplier charges or credits us with any amount concerning services provided before the date of transfer, we will credit or charge that amount to your account accordingly and as soon as practicable. You agree to pay that amount.
- 14.6.8. You indemnify us against any claims made by your current supplier to us in relation to any amounts owing by you to them.
- 14.6.9. If you stop obtaining a Home Phone Service and do not port the phone number, we may issue the phone number to another customer in accordance with the numbering regulations.
- 14.6.10. We are not liable to you for any expense or loss incurred by you due to any recovery and replacement of a phone number, you ceasing to have the right to use a phone number, us failing to port a phone number or any discontinuity of service during a port.
- 14.6.11. You may transfer your service number to another carrier or service provider. If you do so you acknowledge and understand that:
- a) charges may apply as a consequence of a transfer from us to another carrier or service provider;
 - b) any outstanding fees and charges which remain are your responsibility;
 - c) the transfer may result in disconnection of any related services;
 - d) it is your responsibility to ensure that any equipment or software used by you in connection with your service works with your new carrier or service provider; and
 - e) if after the transfer of your service from us, you continue to use our service (for example through the use of an override code), you agree to pay us for any fees and charges incurred for those services.

15.FOXTTEL FROM SIMPLE SERVICE DESCRIPTION

IMPORTANT TV CARE INFORMATION

Do not allow a still image to be displayed on your television screen for an extended period of time. This can cause a permanent residual image (burn-in) remaining on your screen. Examples of still images include:

- a) channel logos and certain channel formats;
- b) images displayed in a 4:3, 14:9 and 16:9 mode that are different to your television set up;
- c) on-screen information (for example tickers on news channels) that are part of programmes;
- d) games and interactive services (including any onscreen icons);
- e) audio channels; and
- f) the Foxtel electronic programme guide.

Plasma, Rear Projection and LCD televisions are at a higher risk of burn-in. These televisions are more prone to burn-in during the first 200 hours of use. Always consult your television manufacturer's manual for proper operating instructions.

The satellite Service may be affected by severe weather conditions. If you experience signal problems that you suspect may be caused by severe weather, and for any other technical issues please call our customer service centre on 1300 130 185.

- 15.1.14. You will be billed within 14 days of the end of the prior month for the following period's Subscription Fee and you agree to acquire the service for that period.

15.2. PERMISSION, ACCESS AND VISITING THE PREMISES

- 15.2.1. You must obtain and maintain any necessary permission or authorisation for the Works. This may include authorisations from your local council, authorisations required under Heritage Legislation, or authorisations required by the manager and/or owner of the Premises.
- 15.2.2. If you require us to perform or arrange for the performance of the Works, you must obtain permission from your building manager and/or owner to allow the Foxtel Representatives to enter the common property at the Premises from time to time to perform the Works and perform maintenance. Unless you notify us otherwise, we assume that you have obtained this permission prior to the installation of the Equipment or Infrastructure. If we are required by you to perform or arrange for the performance of the Works, we are not responsible for any damage to common property arising from the Works, unless the law says otherwise. You will be responsible for the cost of any damage to common property arising from the Works, and you may be regarded as having terminated this Agreement.
- 15.2.3. You must provide us and Foxtel Representatives with access to the Premises to enable them to perform or arrange for the performance of the Works. You must meet our reasonable requirements about our safety and the safety of the Foxtel Representatives who perform the Works.

15.3. PRE-INSTALLED EQUIPMENT

- 15.3.1. If any Equipment that we need to provide you with to receive the Service is already installed and in working order at the Premises, or any new address to which you transfer the Service, we may use it to provide you with the Service.

15.4. FOXTEL EQUIPMENT

- 15.4.1. At all times Foxtel will remain the owner of the Equipment. Foxtel may add or substitute Equipment in its absolute and sole discretion.
- 15.4.2. You must keep the Equipment in good and useable condition at all times (fair wear and tear excepted) until returned to, or collected by, us or Foxtel's representatives.
- 15.4.3. Foxtel permits you to use the Equipment in accordance with this Agreement. Only Foxtel can authorise Works on the Equipment. No person (including you) is allowed to perform Works on the Equipment without Foxtel's prior written authorisation. If you, or someone authorised by you, performs Works on the Equipment without Foxtel's prior written authorisation, you will be liable to Foxtel for any loss Foxtel incurs. You must not do anything to enable the Equipment to be connected to the internet or the public switch telephone network (PSTN) without obtaining Foxtel's express prior written consent.
- 15.4.4. By activating the service at the time of installation, you acknowledge that the Equipment and the Infrastructure are in working order and that you approve the quality of reception of the Service as at the date of installation of the Equipment.

- 15.4.5. You must not remove any marking which identifies the Equipment as belonging to Foxtel.
- 15.4.6. Foxtel may use the Equipment to deliver the subscription television services of a third party subscription television service provider to the Premises.
- 15.4.7. We or Foxtel will only be obliged to repair any damage to the Premises caused by Works performed on the Equipment to the extent that such damage is caused or contributed to by us or Foxtel in breach of this Agreement.

15.5. FOXTEL SERVICES

- 15.5.1. We may change the Service at any time without notice, including:
 - a) changing the scheduled broadcast time of, or withdrawing, any program;
 - b) restricting the features of the Foxtel set-top unit (including the ability to record); and/or
 - c) adding, withdrawing or changing features of functionality of the Service.
- 15.5.2. If we withdraw a Channel from the Service you subscribe to and/or change the way we package the Channels we provide to you, we will provide you with at least 14 days' prior written notice of any such change.
- 15.5.3. If we change the Service, you may have termination rights under the General Terms and Condition.
- 15.5.4. You must only provide the Service to the number of Outlets specified in your Application. You must ensure that the number of Outlets specified in your Application is equal to the total number of Outlets at that Premises at all times.
- 15.5.5. The Outlets must not be connected in any Public Viewing Areas.
- 15.5.6. Subject to copyright laws, you must not copy any of the Service or Retransmitted Service, or videotape, split, redirect, redistribute or otherwise offer or supply the Service, any part of the Service, or Retransmitted Service to any other place other than the specified Outlets, or to any other person or entity without Foxtel's prior written authorisation.
- 15.5.7. You must not use, exhibit, cause or permit the viewing of the FOX Sports Channels and/or SKY Racing channel in a Public Viewing Area which holds a liquor license or connect the FOX Sports Channels and/or SKY Racing channel to any television or monitor in a Public Viewing Area which holds a liquor license whether directly or indirectly by means of any device or otherwise, without prior written authorisation of Foxtel.
- 15.5.8. You must not use or authorise the use of a Broadcasting Decoding Device to gain access to the Service without prior Foxtel authorisation. You also agree not to duplicate, alter, retransmit or redistribute the Channels, including making any change to the picture aspect ratio (for example by inserting digital signage on screen), in any way including but not limited to via the internet.
- 15.5.9. If you ask us to change the Premises at which the Service are provided (for example, if you have moved to a new address), we cannot guarantee that it will be able to provide the Service at the new address. You will have to pay any charges for installing the Service at the new address. If you want us to provide the Service at another place in addition to the Premises, you will have to sign a separate agreement with us for the Service provided at that place.
- 15.5.10. You must ensure compliance with the terms of this Agreement by:
 - a) all occupants of the Premises that receive the Service and the Retransmitted Service; and
 - b) all your contractors, sub-contractors, employees and permitted assignees.

- 15.5.11. You acknowledge and agree that any programs that you have recorded to the Foxtel iQ may be erased and irretrievable from the Foxtel iQ for any reason and that, to the extent permitted by law, including the Australian Consumer Law, we and Foxtel are not liable to you for any programs that are erased or cannot be retrieved from your Foxtel iQ, including if any of the following events occurs:
- a) you or we cancel the Foxtel iQ service or this Agreement is otherwise terminated in accordance with its terms;
 - b) if we are required to do so by our content suppliers;
 - c) power surges or severe weather conditions;
 - d) we reformat the Foxtel iQ;
 - e) we alter your account details or your subscriber identification number;
 - f) you attempt to use the Foxtel iQ otherwise than in accordance with its operating instructions;
 - g) the Foxtel iQ, including the Smartcard, is defective in any way or ceases to operate; or
 - h) you migrate your service to Simple from another provider such as Foxtel direct.

15.6. FEES AND CHARGES

- 15.6.1. For Equipment, we may charge you for any reasonable cost we or Foxtel incur for Works performed on the Equipment from time to time during the Term.
- 15.6.2. If you cannot receive the Service and we are not at fault, you must continue to pay the Subscription Fee.

15.7. YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

- 15.7.1. At the conclusion of the Fixed Term and/or any Extended Term, or earlier termination of this agreement, all Foxtel Equipment is to be returned to the address specified by us within 21 days. If you do not return the Equipment, or the Equipment cannot be recovered by us, then we reserve the right to charge an unrecovered equipment fee to the amount of $450.00 GST Inc for each unrecovered unit of Equipment. You acknowledge that such fees represent our reasonable costs of recovering or replacing such Equipment. If you have been paying by direct debit or credit card, you authorise us to deduct this amount from your nominated bank, credit union or credit card account.
- 15.7.2. You acknowledge that the unauthorised access and use of the Service is a serious crime. For further information on copyright theft, see details under the piracy tab on the Foxtel Website.

15.8. WARRANTIES

- 15.8.1. You warrant to us that:
- a) you have obtained all requisite consents and approvals from all persons with an interest in the Premises in connection with any Works on the Equipment and Infrastructure;
 - b) you will ensure that the use of the Equipment and Infrastructure by those receiving the Service under this Agreement will not result in any damage to the Equipment or the Infrastructure (as applicable); and
 - c) without limitation to paragraph (d), you will use your best endeavours to prevent any unauthorised use of the Equipment, Infrastructure or the Service.

15.9. INDEMNITY AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 15.9.1. In addition to any rights against you that we may have under this Agreement, you will be liable to us and must keep us, our Foxtel Partners, Related Companies, Suppliers, agents and Contractors indemnified against any loss, cost, expenses, damage or other liability (including legal costs on a solicitor/client basis) arising out of any claim or demand against us by you or any person other than you, which arises from or is connected with our supply or removal of the Service to you or your use of the Service, unless the loss, costs, expense, damage or other liability is caused by our, our Foxtel Partners', Related Companies', Suppliers', agent's or Contractor's wilful default, negligence or breach of this Agreement or any law.

15.10. IF YOU BREACH THIS AGREEMENT

15.10.1. In addition to our other rights under this Agreement, we can terminate this Agreement at any time, immediately and without notice if:

- a) we believe that the Service or Retransmitted Service is being used in a way forbidden by this Agreement;
- b) we reasonably believe that the content provided on the Service may no longer be secure, or is being used in breach of this Agreement or in a way inconsistent with the requirements of our content partners or licensors;
- c) if we consider that you have committed or may be committing any fraudulent activity against us or against any other person or organisation through your or their use of the Service.

15.11. RETRANSMITTED SERVICES

15.11.1. We may provide you separate services, without obligation and without further charge, such as your local commercial television network(s) or station(s), the ABC and the SBS (if broadcast in your area) that are retransmitted on the Foxtel platform (the Retransmitted Service).

15.11.2. You acknowledge that we provide the Retransmitted Service for your convenience only and does so without any obligation to you. If for any reason we cease to provide any or all of the Retransmitted Service, we are not liable for any loss or disappointment you may suffer as a result.

15.11.3. For the avoidance of doubt, if the provision of the Retransmitted Service is terminated by us, there will be no reduction in the Subscription Fee or any other amounts payable by you under this Agreement.

15.12. CLASSIFICATION OF CONTENT

15.12.1. Content classifications will be displayed with each piece of applicable content available on the Service. You accept full responsibility for reviewing all classification information supplied for each piece of content for the purpose of informing, and where appropriate safeguarding, other viewers of the content. Where you allow children or young people to view content via the Service, you are responsible for ensuring that the content is suitable for them.

15.13. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

15.13.1. Copyright, trade marks and all other intellectual property rights in all material, content or software supplied as part of the Service will remain ours or, where applicable, our content partners or licensors. We grant you a licence to use such rights for your personal use of the Service only, in accordance with this Agreement.

15.13.2. You will not, and you will not assist, facilitate or authorise any third party to:

- a) copy, transfer, publish, rent, reproduce, record, transmit, frame, reverse engineer, decrypt, decompile, disassemble, alter or commercially exploit any material or content you obtain from the Service;
- b) sell or make any charge for watching or using any part of the Service; or
- c) except with our prior written approval, show any part of the Service in public to an audience, even if no charge is made.

17.6. Tech Help Additional Services

- 17.6.1. Tech Help Additional Services are additional services performed during a Tech Help in home visit. Additional charges apply for these services. The Simple technician attending your premises will discuss with you the services available and the charges that apply.
- 17.6.2. The Tech Help Additional Onsite Services available to you will vary depending on the Tech Help in-home service you have taken up and your needs.
- 17.6.3. An additional connection point installation service is the installation of additional sockets for voice or broadband services. Whether an additional connection point installation is standard or non-standard will depend on the conditions at your premises (including whether the premises have multiple stories and dwelling type (e.g. brick, weatherboard, etc)), the location you propose to install the additional socket(s) and the availability and ease of access (for example, to cabling under the floor). Installation of additional sockets at some premises may be classified as neither standard nor non-standard installations and in this case you will be charged on a fee-for-service basis as set out in the Fee-for-Service (Other Work We Do for You)
- 17.6.4. Other Additional Onsite Services may be available on request.
- 17.6.5. The Tech Help Additional Onsite services will be charged to your Simple bill after the services have been performed.

17.7. Availability

- 17.7.1. In order to take up a Tech Help service, you must have an Simple account number.
- 17.7.2. My Tech Home and In-home services are not available in all areas.

17.8. General Terms

- 17.8.1. Tech Help services over the phone or online are available during normal support hours.
- 17.8.2. In-home services are available between 8am to 5pm Monday to Friday, excluding public holidays, in the relevant State or Territory where the service will be provided.
- 17.8.3. In-villages services are available during the office hours of the relevant village.
- 17.8.4. If your access to your Tech Help service exceeds two times the average of all users of the service in a billing period (excessive usage), we may contact you to discuss your usage of the service.
- 17.8.5. If your usage continues to be excessive in the following billing period, we may warn you that your service may be terminated.
- 17.8.6. If your usage continues to be excessive for a third consecutive billing period, then we may terminate your service.
- 17.8.7. The services we make available under this section of Our Customer Terms are for your personal use. If we have reasonable grounds to believe that you are using this service for commercial purposes or giving another person access to the service, we may terminate the service by giving you 30 days warning.
- 17.8.8. You must not use the service in a manner which adversely affects another customer's use of the service. If we have reasonable grounds to believe that this is occurring, we may suspend your service without notice.
- 17.8.9. The Tech Help services are not available on some devices, software and operating systems, such as Linux operating systems or operating system versions that are no longer supported by the relevant manufacturer, alpha, beta, development or testing software, professional design or desktop publishing software, accounting packages, file sharing software configuration, business and corporate versions of software, and VPN, SSH Tunnelling and other advanced networking software.

- 17.8.10. You are responsible for all data charges (if any) associated with the Tech Help services (including but not limited to downloading of any software, software updates, and drivers). You are responsible for your internet and telephone plan and usage charges.
- 17.8.11. You acknowledge that as part of supplying you with the Tech Help services, and unless otherwise specified, we do not separately back-up any of your data to avoid potential data loss. You also acknowledge that there is a risk that some or all of your data may be lost during our supply of the Tech Help services.
- 17.8.12. Unless otherwise stated, the cost of any software and hardware is not included in the price for the Tech Help services, and you are responsible for the cost of any such software and/or hardware. Additional delivery charges may apply when connecting your Simple services and we will advise you of these in advance.
- 17.8.13. Tech Help services do not include hardware repair or replacement.
- 17.8.14. Tech Help services excludes:
- a) set up of Foxtel;
 - b) electrical work;
 - c) services on devices that are not available in the Australian market; and
 - d) the set-up of computers & other devices (with the exception of TV, sound system or connection to your Wi-Fi).
- 17.8.15. You are responsible for backing up your software and data before we provide any Tech Help services to you.
- 17.8.16. You will ensure that a person aged over 18 years is present to provide us with access to the areas of your home that we need to provide the services, passwords to your computer and systems (as required), electrical power and internet access (where required), and reasonable assistance with using your systems so that we can perform the services.
- 17.8.17. You will ensure that any software you use or supply for use in conjunction with a Tech Help service is legal and has a valid licence.
- 17.8.18. To the extent that you are giving access to personal information of other individuals as part of providing the services, you must ensure that you have obtained any necessary privacy consents from those individuals to enable us to perform the services.
- 17.8.19. To make the most of your time with the technician, although not mandatory, it is recommended that all prior preparation for the service is completed in advance. For example, download any applications in advance where relevant, ensure that batteries are charged for relevant devices, any login details such as passwords and usernames are readily available. Please refer to section 4 for more detail.
- 17.8.20. Where a Tech Help service requires remote assistance (i.e. over the phone or online assistance), you acknowledge that we will need to download software onto your computer to enable us to provide remote assistance and you will be responsible for the data charges (if any).
- 17.8.21. You must provide us with passwords to your computer and systems (as required) and reasonable assistance in using your systems.
